EVENTS FOR WORKFORCE DEVELOPERS AND EMPLOYERS

- The National Association of Workforce Development Professionals (NAWDP) will host its Foundations in Workforce Development Webinar on Labor Market Information and Intelligence on Tuesday, March 19th, at 3:00 PM. During this webinar, participants will learn about LMI principles and practical applications. Click here for more information and to register.
- REMI will present a webinar on the Economic Effects of Criminal Justice Reform on Wednesday, March 20th, from 2:00 PM to 3:00 PM. The prison population in this country rose sharply over several decades due to federal and state legislators pushing policies meant to strengthen America's stance on crime. The nation's incarceration rate has now become a social and financial issue as elected officials on both sides of the aisle hope to reassess the approach to crime and punishment. The money saved from decreased prison spending and population can potentially have a revitalizing effect on a local economy. This webinar will provide an overview of the economic effects associated with criminal justice reform. This presentation describes how to evaluate the impacts of reform on employment, revenue, and output using dynamic economic modeling, as well as examining the latest Congressional initiatives and state-specific case studies. Click here to register.
- WorkforceGPS, an interactive online communication and learning technical assistance platform sponsored by the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration (ETA), presents the webinar, Sustaining Employer Partnerships for Students' Long-Term Success, on Wednesday, March 20th, from 4:00 PM to 5:00 PM. Community colleges must build relationships with employers to ensure that their education and training programs align with industry needs in order to equip adults with skills that lead to family-supporting jobs. Join this workshop to discover strategies that community colleges can use to build long-lasting and scalable partnerships across multiple employers within an industry sector for the benefit of the colleges, business community, and students. Click here to register.
