

Metro Atlanta eXchange for Workforce Solutions

MAX PROVIDER COUNCIL CHARTER 2019

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Provider Council is to help align MAX strategies and actions with the needs and operations of workforce service providers, especially nonprofits and community-based organizations, in order to achieve its mission of strengthening connections, collaborations, and practices among workforce development organizations in Metro Atlanta.

The Provider Council will utilize its subject matter expertise, network, and operating perspectives to advise, review and advocate for strategies and actions that contribute positively to the provider community.

PROVIDER COUNCIL COMPOSITION

The Provider Council consists of stakeholders whose primary roles consist of assisting individuals in the metro Atlanta region with job training, job search and placement and related work supports for obtaining and retaining employment either directly or through workforce service provider oversight. The Provider Council shall elect a Chair who will oversee council efforts. The MAX Provider Council Chair shall also serve on the MAX Board of Directors to inform overall MAX governance and ensure continuity and communication between the board and advisory councils.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide thought leadership as MAX works to identify, articulate and prioritize the issues and challenges affecting job seekers, businesses and workforce service providers
- Advocate for MAX's regional approach in strengthening the workforce system
- Develop and vet recommendations to increase the quality, capacity, and effectiveness of Atlanta's workforce system
- Serve as the advisory group to develop and offer Professional Development programs for workforce development practitioners
- Serve as the advisory group to inform the continued development of MAX Portal 2.0
- Help build awareness of MAX among workforce service providers
- Advise MAX on data and survey collection effort
- Support and attend MAX activities and events

TIME COMMITMENT

Members are asked to serve for two years, attend periodic meetings, and to respond to requests, via e-mail and phone, for feedback and input.
