How We Work

Workforce Partners gain an opportunity to work with multiple employers and workforce partner organizations to participate in a regional strategy that is aligned, funded and sustainable.

Bring partners together. We work with industry and workforce partners to organize and lead regional initiatives that meet industry needs and provide good jobs.

Make it easier for employers to participate. We work across partners and systems to simplify and streamline program processes.

Leverage all available funding. We use multiple funding sources, so programs are free for eligible participants and reduce employer costs.
