Contact Denitra Parker at 770-427-9000 ext. 5153, denitra.parker@tommynobiscenter.org or click here for more information. Click here for the flyer. Tommy Nobis Center is an authorized Medicaid Waiver program provider. Medicaid Waiver is a federally funded program that helps provide services to people who would otherwise be in an institution, nursing home, or hospital to receive long-term care in the community. Tommy Nobis offers three types of Medicaid waiver programs: Community Access, Pre-vocational and Supportive Employment. Community Access Individual and Group Services are designed to help participants acquire, retain or improve self-help, socialization and adaptive skills required for active participation and independent functioning outside the home. Pre-vocational Services prepare participants for paid or unpaid employment and include teaching concepts such as compliance, attendance, task completion, problem solving and safety. Supported Employment Group/Individual Services enable participants, for whom competitive employment at or above the minimum wage is unlikely absent the provision of supports, to work in a regular work setting. Contact Camillian White at 770-427-9000 or camillian.white@tommynobiscenter.org for additional information.
- The Urban League of Greater Atlanta, Inc. with the funding support and partnership of WorkSource DeKalb, has launched and is operating the Urban Youth Empowerment Program DeKalb (UYEP DeKalb) to provide viable pipelines to support DeKalb County 'out of school' youth, ages 18 to 24. - The National Association of Workforce Development Professionals (NAWDP) is hosting a webinar on The Barrier Buster: New Ways to Eliminate Employment Barriers on Tuesday, September 10th, at 3:00 PM. Traditional barrier removal approaches can't match today's powerful barriers. You need the new toolbox of barrier busting strategies in this webinar! Transform barrier work from counseling that people shut down to a trans-formative role model-based strategy that proves to customers they can overcome barriers. This shows them the benefits of eliminating these roadblocks in ways they cannot deny. Use the Proactive Barrier Strategy to help customers feel more comfortable about discussing hidden barriers to employment they may want to hide. This means barriers that used to stay hidden will now surface so you can work on them faster. Do a Strengths Based Change Assessment and mobilize the hidden strengths of your customers to address their barriers? This gives them the confidence they need to take on their obstacles to employment progress. No program can eliminate every barrier, but it is difficult to get people to go to referral resources. Get a list of innovative best practices for referral and you can close the gap between your customers and the help they need from other partners. Click here to register.

- The National Association of Workforce Development Professionals (NAWDP) is hosting a webinar on The Radar Approach to Job Retention on Tuesday, November 5th, at 3:00 PM. While it is difficult to help people that are hard-to-employ get jobs, it is even more challenging to help them keep jobs. The Radar model reinvents job retention from a post-hiring service to a powerful pre- and post-employment system that works like radar to eliminate retention problems before people go to work. This prevention approach is much more effective than the traditional crisis intervention model. Discover how to integrate retention thinking and planning into all of your program components. Find out how to do a retention assessment that will reveal strengths and challenges to holding a job. Develop a Retention Success Plan that will guide people into a job retention mind set. Learn the best practices for post-employment follow up and support that will empower people so they can navigate their way through the challenges to their job retention. Click here to register.
