VEHICLE MAINTENANCE JOBS AT USPS

AUTOMOTIVE TECHNICIAN

As an Automotive Technician you'll perform everything from routine maintenance to complex repairs on a wide range of postal vehicles. You'll use advanced diagnostic tools to troubleshoot engine issues, inspect systems, and keep our fleet running safely and efficiently. This role also includes maintaining service records, managing work orders, and responding to road calls and vehicle testing needs.

LEAD AUTOMOTIVE TECHNICIAN

As a Lead Automotive Technician you'll play a key leadership role in the garage—overseeing and guiding technicians and mechanics while performing the most advanced diagnostics and repairs. Alongside team leadership, you'll handle complex troubleshooting, inspect vehicle systems, and use specialized diagnostic tools to keep our fleet in top condition.

GARAGE ASSISTANT

As a Garage Assistant, you'll play a key supporting role in vehicle maintenance—helping with routine services, basic repairs, and shop upkeep. From assisting mechanics to cleaning work areas and ensuring tools are ready, your work keeps the garage running smoothly and safely. It's hands-on, essential work that supports the fleet—and the mission—every day.

AUTOMOTIVE MECHANIC

As an Automotive Mechanic, you'll perform routine maintenance and essential repairs on postal vehicles—from changing fluids and fixing brakes to diagnosing electrical and engine issues. You'll also handle road calls, use standard test equipment, and keep detailed service records.

STEP INTO A CAREER WHERE YOUR EXPERTISE ISN'T JUST VALUED — IT KEEPS AMERICA MOVING.

As an Automotive Technician, Automotive Mechanic, or a Garage Assistant for the U.S. Postal Service, you'll get all your tools provided and work hands-on tackling exciting challenges daily, on one of the largest and most advanced fleets in the world.

We're looking for enthusiastic technicians and mechanics of all levels to help keep our vehicles running smoothly, safely, and reliably to ensure we deliver for America.

DRIVE THE FUTURE OF FLEET MAINTENANCE

As part of our vehicle maintenance crew, you'll work on one of the largest and most diverse fleets in the world. From light-duty vans to heavy-duty trucks, you'll gain experience with a wide range of technologies—including electric, hybrid, diesel, flex-fuel, and state-of-the-art telematics.

TOOLS PROVIDED; SKILLS REWARDED

You bring the expertise—we'll provide the tools. USPS supplies all the professional-grade equipment you need to do your best work. In return, we offer competitive salary pay, benefits, and an environment where your skills are recognized and rewarded.

MORE THAN A SHOP JOB

Unlike flag-hour shops, USPS technicians are paid a consistent salary—rewarding your time, expertise, and commitment. And your duties will extend beyond the garage; you'll have the opportunity to perform field service to troubleshoot and repair vehicles on location.

Ready to shift your career into high gear? Apply now for a vehicle maintenance job to play a vital role in Delivering for America.
